1 Executive Summary

Alicia Riddle Photography is a brand-new studio offering family, corporate headshots, hockey, and pet photography services in the Ottawa-Gatineau market. The site is positioned to compete in a crowded family photography space, but possesses unique advantages in two underserved niches: hockey team photography and pet photography (leveraging Alicia's vet tech background).

This keyword research analyzed 44 high-potential search terms across five service categories using Semrush's competitive intelligence suite. We identified 25 "quick win" keywords achievable within 1–3 months through on-page optimization alone, and discovered a true blue ocean in hockey photography—an 8-keyword cluster with zero keyword difficulty.

Bottom Line

Hockey photography is a true blue ocean — virtually zero competition. Combined with achievable headshot and family keywords, Alicia can realistically rank for 19+ keywords within 3 months through on-page optimization alone.

Content Strategy Notes

- Each blog post should be 1,000–1,500 words and link to at least 2–3 relevant service pages internally

- Seasonal angles (e.g., spring family photos, back-to-school) capture demand spikes and improve click-through rates
- Cross-service posts (e.g., "Family + Pets", "Hockey + Headshots") deepen topic clusters and internal linking
- French content targets bilingual Ottawa-Gatineau audience; Mathieu-photo.com is your primary FR SEO competitor
- Use Alicia's vet tech background as a unique angle for pet photography—emphasize stress-free, animal-first approach
